KELLY PITCHES ONE-HIT GAME FOR NUGGETS AGAINST SWANEE STARS

Mike Kelly, pitching for the Nuggets against the Swanee-Stars at the Fargrounds Wednesday night, came within an ace of pitching a no-hit, no-run game when he shut out the Greeneville boys with one hit, the Nuggets winning 12 to 0. Kelly was invincible from the time he entered the box until he threw out the last man at first. He struck out 13 men; in the eight innings and accepted seven chances without an error.

The Swanees were unable to get a man by second base and only one control of lots of speed but his support tweakened at critical times and the Nuggets scored 12 runs during their eight times at bat. Scrappy retired in the seventh inning in favor of Andy Boyd who held the Nuggets to one run in each inning. The Swanees played good ball with the exception of a few costly errors which came at critical times. Billy Bowen started in

The Swanees were unable to get a man by second base and only one reached that bag, and he died there on a double play. The only hit that the Swanees managed to get was in the fourth inning when Boyd hit a single to center field, and stole second but was out on the next play which caught him off the bag. Only three men on the Nuggets team were necessary to do the fielding, these were Harris at first base, Kelly in the box and Less Manchester behind the plate. Shrimp Robinson at short ston was credited with one assist and one put out and Joe Burke at second had two assets and one put outs and assists being made by the other three mentioned players. The outfield had nothing to do fa few costly errors which came at critical times. Billy Bowen started in left field for the Swanees but gave critical times.
